

The way that law enforcement uses force on the mentality is a liability pitfall for police agencies like yours. Let's come up with a plan before it's too late.

SAVAGE
TRAINING GROUP

Make Entry or Walk Away? Decision Making for Non-Criminal Barricades

Special One-Time Free Live Webinar
June 17, 2020 • 10:00am - Noon PST

With Savage Training Group Founder Scott Savage and SFPD's Sgt. Donald Anderson

Hosted by the San Mateo County Sheriff's Office (CA) and Sponsored by The Police Credit Union

When a subject is armed, suicidal, and barricaded in his home, law enforcement officers face the dilemma of having to decide if they should make entry or walk away. Making entry means potentially forcing a violent confrontation whereas leaving seems steeped in potential liability.

In this live webinar, we'll examine the options and look at how progressive police agencies have chosen to respond. Our guest, Sgt. Donald Anderson of the San Francisco Police Department's Hostage/Crisis Negotiation Team will lead a debrief of a recent non-criminal barricade he responded to in San Francisco. He'll show the dramatic body-camera footage, and explain how he and his tactical counterparts resolved the incident. We'll conclude with a behind-the-scenes look at the new online version of our Response to the Non-Criminal Barricade: Disengagement and Special Relationships® training course.

Whether you are a law enforcement supervisor, negotiator, SWAT officer or simply an officer concerned with protecting yourself and your agency from liability, you won't want to miss this event.

As a service to you, there is no cost for this training. You must be a sworn law enforcement officer to attend. Space is limited so register today.

Want to attend but your work schedule won't allow? Don't worry, registered attendees will receive access to the recording of this webinar for 48 hours after the live broadcast.

Register today at SavageTrainingGroup.com