Savage Training Group is proud to present guest instructor Scott Tillema for his only two West Coast training dates. Scott is an internationally recognized expert in crisis negotiations and a current law enforcement Lieutenant. He is a sought-after instructor and we're thrilled to bring this unique training seminar to California.

The role of the negotiator has never been as crucial as it is now. Negotiators are the tip of the spear when it comes to de-escalating violent confrontations.

In this seminar, you'll examine a significant hostage incident and learn step by step how negotiators made all of the difference. You'll also go beyond the basic negotiation principles you have learned and explore new models being used by professional negotiators all around the world. This seminar is a must-see event!

Lieutenant Scott Tillema is a FBI trained hostage negotiator, spending seven years as a negotiator with the NIPAS Emergency Services Team, one of the largest multi-jurisdictional municipal SWAT teams in the United States. He has been teaching negotiation for the past ten years, and is currently the training coordinator at the Schaumburg (IL) Police Department, where he has been a police officer since 2002. Educationally, Scott holds a bachelor's degree in behavioral science and a master's degree in psychology.
